Senior Class History

How time flies! It seems like only yesterday that we started the long climb up through the grades, and yet here we are now as dignified and intelligent seniors, looking back on our many happy school days.

Most of us will never forget our first day in the Training School. The years passed quickly and soon we found ourselves in Junior High School. Here we had our first acquaintance with changing classes and for a while it was fun, as something new always is. We had a lot of good times in Junior High, but all good things must come to an end. In May, 1947, we received our diplomas which signified graduation from Junior High School.

We entered these now familiar halls in the fall of 1948 as helpless little sophomores. Though we were shy and timid at first, we soon settled down to our work and before we knew it, spring was upon us, and with spring came our first prom and then two weeks later school was dismissed for the summer.
