JOE AGOSTINELLI

"Joe"

This friendly senior is quite well known for his athletic ability. He says he keeps in shape by walking to and from Williamsburg. Anyway, just name the sport, he plays it. Good luck in the future, Joe.

Football—2, 3, 4; Basketball—2, 3, 4; Newspaper—4; Class President—3, 4; "Boug".

CHARLES ALEXANDER

"Boug"

Boug, the class clown, hopes someday to be dictator of Russia. This tall lanky senior will always be remembered for his humor and easy-going manner. As most seniors agree, "him funny boy."

ROBERT BROOKS

"Bob"

Quiet and likeable is a good description of Bob. He wants to become a carpenter, and with his determination he is likely to succeed.

Yearbook—4.

JAMES CALLIHAN

"Jim"

Jim's aim in life is to graduate. His happy-go-lucky way has won him many friends in his stay at C. H. S.

Intra-Mural Basketball—3, 4; Gym Exhibit—3, 4.

Good luck Cowboy.

"Jim"

MARVIN CLARK

"Clarkie"

Here is a boy who is an authority on most everything. Though he is always attentive and usually sticks to the subject, his occasional remarks, especially in English class, cause quite an uproar.

Honor Society—3, 4; Football—3, 4; Class Play—4; Vice President—2; Yearbook—2, 3, 4; Gym Exhibit—3, 4.

Good luck Clarkie

Clarkie remember that Brown? night after the Best of Luck Cow

RONALD CROWE

"Cow"

Having a friendly way with everyone, Ronald can always find a topic to talk about. In the future he wants to live on "easy street," so here's hoping he makes it.

Band—2, 3, 4; Gym Exhibit—3.

DONNA LEE DAVIS

"Dee"

This cute little majorette, like the rest of the gang, just loves a week at the "forest". Her pleasing personality will undoubtedly carry her down the road to success. Good luck, Dee!
